

city of fort walton beach, florida

November 16, 2009

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Cam Johnson
Public Information Officer
(850)833-9505

Book Sale and Holiday Cookie Swap

Fort Walton Beach - Friends of the Fort Walton Beach Public Library is conducting a book sale from 10:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. on Wednesday, December 9th. Funds raised at the book sale will assist with buying books, DVDs, children's programs, and other patron-service items.

The library is currently accepting donations of books and DVDs for the sale. The most in-demand items will include titles by modern fiction authors, children's books, DVDs, and non-fiction by popular, well-known authors. Please, no textbooks, encyclopedias, or VHS tapes. Please call the library at 833-9590 to let the staff know you are coming so they may assist with large donations.

The sale will take place in the library lobby at 185 Miracle Strip Pkwy. SE, near the corner of Eglin Parkway and Highway 98. Parking is located on First Street and Ferry Avenue behind Bangkok House.

In addition to the book sale, a Holiday Cookie Swap is also being held in the library meeting room at 11:00 a.m. on the 9th. Please contact Jennifer at 833-9590 by December 1st to sign up for the cookie swap.

#